I can't tell you how pleased I am with the rejection of Microsoft's settlement proposal.

Microsoft has demonstrated over the years that it seems to believe that it is a nation unto itself, with its own rules, regardless of what others experience.

What particularly strikes me is the arrogance of their proposal. I would call it a great demonstration of a Wolf in Sheep's Clothing.

Thank you for your astute and wise decision. Microsoft's arrogance will continue, until it realizes that there are other people and companies that have as much rights as they.

I commend your decision.

Thank you,
